"Our final statistics have us coming in at a total passenger figure of 839,781, with our total enplanements up 5.75% over 2013. This increase, combined with an increase in airline load factor, shows strong demand for air service in the region."

Southwest Airlines brought the largest passenger increases to the airport, with a 22.79% increase in ridership year-over-year. United Airlines was up 12.25%. American Airlines saw an uptick in passengers of 2.74% for the year. Additionally, a small number of charters also departed from the facility in 2014, and they showed an increase of 42.28% over their 2013 statistics.
