Flint Bishop to Host a Career Fair to Fill Dozens of Positions

FLINT, Mich., November 22, 2021 – Flint Bishop Airport is growing and they’re looking for people to grow with them. Several airport tenants need to fill nearly 100 positions combined and will be meeting with job applicants during a career fair on Tuesday, December 14, 2021. The jobs range from customer service agents, aircraft fuelers, cooks, cashiers, and more. The pay is competitive and some jobs include airline benefits for the employee and immediate family members.

“We are coming out of the pandemic strong. Our route map is growing, we’re adding the Allegiant Base operation in 2022 and we are anticipating continued growth,” said Nino Sapone, CEO of Flint Bishop International Airport. “We want to help our tenants prepare for the growth and having a strong workforce is crucial for long-term success.”

The airport authority’s career fair is from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. on the second floor of the terminal. Airport tenants will set up in the cafeteria area, just to the left of the escalators. Job applicants are encouraged to come with a resume and be prepared for interviews, as some employers are prepared to hire on the spot.

No pre-registration is necessary and parking will be free to job applicants. Members from the Flint & Genesee Education and Talent team will also be on hand to offer resume building advice. Laptops and computers will be available to review resumes and print revisions of current resumes.
