(Flint, Michigan) Bishop International Airport Authority is excited to announce that its airport director, Nino Sapone, is elected to serve on the board of directors for the American Association of Airport Executives (AAAE). AAAE is the world's largest organization of its kind, supporting hundreds of airports and aviation professionals across the country.

"I look forward to serving the aviation industry in this new role and helping to guide airports through these unprecedented times," FNT Airport Director, Nino Sapone said. "Our industry faces many challenges right now, but there are also a lot of opportunities for growth, and I remain committed to helping the industry thrive."

Sapone was elected by his peers at AAAE's annual membership meeting, which was held virtually on Friday. This is a continuation of Sapone's leadership, as he previously served as President for the Northeast Chapter of AAAE. He is a longtime accredited airport executive with more than 25 years of industry experience.

AAAE represents 875 airports and hundreds of other companies that support the aviation industry. It is a highly respected accreditation program that also supports students interested in aviation careers through scholarships and grants. AAAE members are leaders in every aspect of aviation, working to provide a safe and efficient industry.
