(Flint, Michigan) “This is a game-changer for Flint Bishop Airport,” stated Airport Director Craig Williams. “The entire region will have nonstop jet service to the East Coast with easy connections up and down the seaboard, as well as internationally. All of this in addition to American’s current service over Chicago O’Hare.”

The new Charlotte flights connect well to popular domestic destinations like Asheville; Boston; Bangor; Baltimore; Memphis; Newark; Philadelphia and Savannah, along with international hot spots like Aruba; Barcelona; Dublin; Madrid, Montego Bay, and the new flight to Munich.

“American is in the business of making the world more accessible,” said Dec Lee, Vice President of Charlotte Hub Operations. “We are excited to be able to connect customers from Flint to more than 160 destinations in 25 countries, with as little as one stop through the Queen City.”

Schedule:

Departure Airport	Departure Time	Arrival Airport	Arrival Time
FNT	8:15 a.m.	CLT	10:30 a.m.
FNT	2:39 p.m.	CLT	4:53 p.m.
CLT	11:51 a.m.	FNT	2:06 p.m.
CLT	7:58 p.m.	FNT	10:13 p.m.

Tickets will be available for sale on Monday, April 15 at aa.com.

Charlotte is American’s second-largest hub and the sixth-busiest airport in the country based on aircraft movement. The airline plans to operate more than 700 daily flights out of Charlotte Douglas International Airport (CLT) by the end of this year.
