(Flint, Michigan)— Flint Bishop Airport is thrilled to announce the lineup of performers and vendors for Wings Over Flint! The first Air Show at Flint Bishop in more than 30 years will take center stage in just a few weeks on June 24th and 25th.

“After a long absence from performing in the Flint area, aviators are excited to return to the area for Wings Over Flint,” said Nino Sapone, CEO at Flint Bishop Airport. “This historic air show will be a thrilling event for the community while also celebrating aviation in a unique and exciting way.”

The Air Show will include air performances by nationally recognized acts like the US Army Golden Nights, the Czech-Mate Jet Team, Northern Stars Aeroteam and more! There will also be aircraft static displays by Crosswinds Aviation, our Armed Forces, and the Tuskegee Airmen National Museum.

Wings Over Flint is proud to partner with local food truck vendors and other community agencies such as the MTA, several Public Safety departments and businesses. A full list of our performers, vendors, sponsors, and food trucks can be found at wingsoverflint.com.

Flint Bishop International Airport (FNT) is “Not the only way to fly. Just a better one”.
